Franklin Communications and Dynacolor Graphics Merge

MIAMI, FLORIDA – June 10, 2009 – Peter Dunne, President of Franklin Communications, LLC, and Donald Duncanson, President of Dynacolor Graphics, Inc., both in Miami, Florida jointly announced that Dynacolor's business operations have been merged with Franklin effective June 1, 2009. Dynacolor Graphics will operate as a division of Franklin with Don Duncanson serving as President of the division. The majority of the highly experienced Dynacolor associates will staff the new division.

"Dynacolor's expertise in specialty markets such as postcards, calendars, and rack brochures will add to the full menu of services that we currently offer our clients," said Peter J. Dunne, President. "We are extremely pleased to have an industry icon such as Don and his staff as part of the Franklin team." Duncanson added "We are extremely excited about joining with Franklin. We can now offer a much wider array of marketing solutions to our customers."

Franklin Communications offers complete graphic communication services including database marketing services, concepting, design, pre-press, sheetfed and non-heatset web printing, variable data printing and a full compliment of finishing and mailing services. Franklin additionally offers web-enabled ordering, warehousing and fulfillment systems, database management services, and customer job access systems.
